

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Friday - 3 December 1971

Page 3

25X1A
25X1A
7. (Confidential - JGO) Received a call from Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who told me he had been requested by members of the Judiciary Committee to ascertain for their use without attribution the names of the principal Soviet intelligence officers in the various Latin American and South American countries such as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Division, has been advised.

25X1A
9. (Confidential - GLC) [REDACTED] called to say he had made arrangements with the Department of Defense for an Agency representative to review the transcript of the Joint Chiefs of Staff's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on the Okinawan Reversion Treaty. They will let us know early next week when this can be done.

10. (Unclassified - GLC) Left with Dorothy Fosdick, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations staff, an [REDACTED] in which Senator Jackson's name was mentioned.

STATSPEC

SECRET